Rand Furniture Holds Opening

The latest in furniture and appliances is featured at the Rand Furniture Co., which held its grand opening sale last week end at 14814 Hawthorne Ave.

At the 18,000 square-foot store, largest in the area, Sheldon Cohn and Norman Shapiro, co-owners, feature both modern and provincial furniture, as well as such name-brand appliances as Westinghouse, Admiral, RCA, Wedgwood, O'Keefe and Merritt, and many others.

Already making plans for expansion, the owners are planning to add a complete line of carpeting. Some floor coverings are available and samples of proposed Alex Smith carpets are on hand.

Immediate delivery and installation is another feature of the store, according to the owners, who feature liberal credit terms, including no down payment and guaranteed savings on each purchase.

A large parking lot, accommodating 350 cars, is located by the side of the store, which is open daily from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Sundays from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Cohn, who lives in West Los Angeles, and Shapiro, who lives in Culver City, have been in business together since 1950. Before they became partners, they had managed other furniture stores for 14 years.

They owned and managed the Rand Furniture Co., 8840 S. Western Ave., Los Angeles, from 1950 to 1954. After sale of their holdings, they worked as managers for two other furniture stores in Los Angeles.
